Description

Small format watercolor sketch, made on thin paper, representing 2 fish sellers and a fisherman. The scene is located by the artist in Guétary (Basque Country), and dated 1908. The work is signed "Gabriel Roby". The work is clean and in good condition, placed under glass in a silver metal frame to be placed. The thinness of the paper causes some warping on the edges of the sheet. Traces of handling at the bottom left. No foxing or tears. This is a delicate work, taken from life and enhanced with harmonious colors. The artist Gabriel Roby, born September 2, 1878 in Bayonne, France and died May 14, 1917 in Paris (16th arrondissement) from his war wounds, is a French painter of the Bayonne School. A student of Philippe Jolyet and Léon Bonnat, uncle by marriage of Claude Lévi-Strauss, he left landscapes, portraits and genre scenes evoking the Basque Country, in a post-impressionist and modernist style. Despite the brevity of his career, he is one of the major artists of the Bayonne School. Several of his works are preserved in the museums of Bayonne. Others have been the subject of public sales on several occasions.
