Description

Circle of Mario Nuzzi, called 'Mario dei Fiori' 17th century Italian painter (Penna in Teverina 1603 - 1673 Rome) Flower still life in a silver vase Oil on canvas : 109,2 X 74,0 cm Unsigned 17th century Frame : 134,2 X 100,8 cm Mario Nuzzi was the first and most famous Roman painter to specialize in flower-pieces. He had numerous followers, both in Italy and in Spain. Typical of Nuzzi are the minute observation of various kinds of flowers, a refined sense of design and an interest in effects of light. The black background in our painting shows the influence of Caravaggio. All my paintings stand fully documented on my website:
