

Early 19th Century English Georgian Oak Dresser

2 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oak

Width : 162

Height : 88

Depth : 40

Description

This early 19th-century Georgian solid oak dresser base is a stunning example of late Georgian craftsmanship, combining practical design with aesthetic appeal, and is a superb addition to any home. The dresser base is distinguished by its rich patina and fabulous color, which highlight the beauty and quality of the oak wood. The molded rectangular planked top sits above a thoughtful arrangement of storage solutions, featuring four central long graduated drawers with brass plate handles and escutcheons. This configuration is flanked by a pair of paneled doors, providing ample storage space. Interestingly, the piece includes three lower dummy drawers, which have been cleverly converted into a cupboard door for enhanced functionality, showcasing the adaptability of

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

period furniture to modern needs. Raised on shaped bracket feet, this dresser base dates back to around 1810, reflecting the late Georgian period's emphasis on both form and function. Its proportions are well-balanced, making it an ideal choice for various settings such as a kitchen, pantry, or hallway. The piece is in very good, clean, and tidy condition. This charming piece of English furniture is not only a testament to superb craftsmanship but also offers significant storage capacity, making it both a practical and decorative element in any interior setting.