

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Raspberry Brocatelle 18th Century Curtain, Hanging

1 150 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 242 cm

Width : 53 cm

Description

"18th Century Raspberry Brocatelle" This is a magnificent piece of raspberry brocatelle, typical of the 18th century, with an elaborate floral design. Brocatelle is a precious fabric, often used for curtains, hangings or furniture in grand homes and palaces. It is characterized by a raised embroidered pattern, usually in gold or silver thread, and in this case, a dominant raspberry color. The key characteristics of this piece are:
Color: Raspberry, a rich and vibrant shade.
Design: Large floral design, typical of the 18th century, a period marked by highly sought-after and elaborate floral designs. Materials: The weft is composed of linen and silk, which gives the piece an exceptional quality and a refined feel.
Dimensions: 242 cm high by 53 cm wide, generous dimensions for a wall hanging or

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur

French antiques textiles

Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes

Névian 11200

decorative use. Condition: Excellent condition, which is remarkable for such an old piece. It is very well preserved, which testifies to the quality of its maintenance over the centuries. A piece of such quality and such age is a true rarity, and it is certain that it will find its place in a collection or a refined interior, where it can shine with its brilliance and its history.ref 020125