Description

PAIR OF VASES JIKKI SHIPPO - JAPAN Pair of large vases in porcelain cloisonned lacquer decorated with birds, butterflies and flowers on a bark background, geometric borders. Beautiful dimensions : Height 46 cm / Diameter 25 cm. Very decorative. MEIJI period (1868-1912). Cloisonned on porcelain is called Jikki Shippo. Pieces using this technique are quite rare because of their fragility at the time of manufacture : after shaping the porcelain vases, copper partitions are fixed with vegetable glue following a preliminary design. Each vase weighs more than 7 kg ! Secure shipping in France and Internationally. Don't hesitate to contact us for any request. Additional photos are available.
