Description

Oil painting on an oval copper plate, in a gilded wooden frame, depicting a repentant Mary Magdalene. We find the characteristic elements of this iconography: Mary Magdalene, her head surrounded by a halo, is represented half-dressed, her long hair falling down her back and onto her chest, the lower part of her body encircled by a drapery in purple tones. She is in a prayer posture, in what appears to be a cave, similar to the Sainte-Baume cave in which the saint is said to have withdrawn according to the Golden Legend by Jacques de Voragine. Some chips in the painting. A crack to note on the back of the wooden panel.Good condition. 17th century Dimensions: On view: 20.5 x 15 cm Framed: 30 x 24.5 cm
