Description

This beautiful brooch, rare in its size, represents a cockchafer. It is adorned in a closed setting with crystal cabochons on paillon, cut to shape, mounted in silver gilt. The pointed head is adorned with a garnet-colored crystal. The thorax is set with an amethyst-colored crystal. The elytra are represented by a large carved citrine-colored cabochon. Perfectly functional brooch system, C-shaped clasp, the hinge attachment is an old replacement. Unhallmarked silver, tested with a touchstone. Some wear on the gilding. England, early 19th century, circa 1830. Dimensions 4.2x3.2cm Weight 17g
