

Antique Altar Cloth Antependium In Painted Silk With Roses

100 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Linen

Length : 240

Width : 32+72

Description

This altar cloth consists of two pieces: a hand-painted silk piece, 32 cm in height, bordered with a metallic fringe, which forms the "visible" part hanging down in front of the altar; and a cotton piece, 72 cm in height, that rests on the surface of the altar, "invisible." The latter has a noticeable brown stain. Some metallic fringes are also missing. Finally, it should be noted that the silk fabric is frayed in some places.
