Description

Three-top half-moon shaped game table in mahogany veneer, brass inclusions and ebony fillets, veneered on oak, 18th century Louis XVI - Directoire period, 1790s-1800s. Our table is a multi-purpose piece of furniture. When unfolded, it can be either a dining room table for 4 people, a games table or even an elegant half-moon console table when folded. Due to its luxurious finishes but more particularly the particular shape of the fluted legs inlaid with brass, our table is the beautiful model of its kind, with refined finishes. Very good condition from home: old french polish cleaned and repolished by our cabinetmaker. The original felt is in good condition (2 small holes). Height: 79cm Depth: 55cm Diameter: 110cm
