Dated: XIX MARZO MCMXV (19 March 1915)

A Venetian view depicting a graceful wooden bridge crossing a canal in front of a historic palace with Gothic windows. The warm afternoon light enhances the architectural volumes and reflections on the water. The composition is solid and well-structured, painted with swift, confident strokes in a palette of ochres, reddish browns, and greys, creating a quiet, suspended atmosphere. The work is precisely dated 1915. Although the
