Description

Original 1/2 moon console, with its three white Carrara marble tops veined with gray, the edges of the two lower tops are dressed with an openwork bronze gallery, the bottom is dressed with mirrors, amplifying the reflections of the objects that will be presented there. The uprights are carved with candle flutes, the dice surmounting these uprights are decorated with bronze scrapers, the conical feet are dressed with bronze sabots. The general line is softened by the quarter-circle sides. The wood used is a beautiful mahogany, the belt and the drawer are inlaid with a dark wood fillet, the drawer, locking with a key, is fitted with bronze drop handles decorated with braided laurels. Louis XVI style beautiful manufacture in the pure tradition of French cabinetmaking period late 19th / early 20th
