Description

Magnificent set of twelve knives by the Boin-Taburet silversmiths. The handles are made of filled silver-gilt. They are decorated at the ends with shells, joined by strong scrollwork and acanthus leaf trim. They are numbered. Three knives have a different engraving. Six knives have steel blades, six have silver-gilt blades. All blades are marked, in full, "Boin-Taburet." The silver-gilt handles and blades are hallmarked: Minerva, 1st grade, before 1973 for 950/00 silver..

Silversmith's mark: H frères et Cie with a stool. The Boin Taburet company was founded in 1880 by the partnership of jeweler Emile Taburet and antique dealer Georges Boin, his son-in-law. The quality of the company's work, which is reflected in our box, was recognized at the World's Fairs of 1878 and 1889. In 1900, Georges
