Description

Superb pair of baluster-shaped vases in gilt bronze resting on red marble and bronze bases. The neck and body are richly decorated with volutes, wreaths of flowers, garlands and foliage. The handles, of Greek inspiration, rest on two winged putti heads. The foot is decorated with vine branches and a laurel wreath. Signature "F. BARBEDIENNE" on the back of the neck. Ferdinand Barbedienne (1810-1892) was a French sculptor and founder. From 1839, he began reproducing in bronze sculpted works exhibited in European museums. He uses his multiple casting process to serve contemporary sculptors and also produces numerous furniture bronzes. Slight chip in the marble base of one of the two vases. Good condition. 19th century. Dimensions: H: 22 cm D: 5 cm (neck) - 8.5 cm
