Pair Of Decorative Ewers In Richly Carved Alabaster. Italy, Voltera, 19th Century.

5 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 41

Height : 174

Description

Pair of decorative ewers in richly carved alabaster. Circular pedestal on a square base. The ovoid body carved on the front with a cup of a branch of flowers flanked by flowering branches, between two large acanthus friezes. The neck has a spout in the shape of an animal's mouth with a swan's neck handle with leafy attachments. Italy Voltera, second half of the 19th century. They are presented on a straight alabaster ogee base (one with onyx plaque). H x W for the ewers: 116 x 41 cm Total height with the bases 174 x 41 cm Condition report: very good general condition, only a few small losses. The particularity of this pair of ewers is its size (174 cm) and its good general condition. Price includes transport in France. We prefer to manage the transport given the weight and delicacy of the object. Voltera, in

Dealer

Galerie Dagault
18th and 19th century furniture and art objects
Tel : 06 03 49 02 55

4 Avenue Stéphane Mallarmé
Paris 75017

Tuscany (Italy), is a city known for its artistic and archaeological heritage, particularly for its alabaster sculptures and Etruscan and Roman remains. Volterra has been world-renowned for its alabaster (a fine, translucent stone) since ancient times.