Material : Terracotta

Description

Materials: Terracotta and bronze
Origin: Tuscany, Italy
Period: 1950s
Dimensions: 44 x 35 x 18 cm
Unique decorative sculpture in the shape of a halved apple, made of high-quality Tuscan terracotta. The piece displays delicate craftsmanship, with seeds and stem modeled in bronze, providing a contrast of materials and textures. Produced in Italy in the 1950s, this piece combines the rustic character of traditional ceramics with a modern, sculptural design, ideal for both indoor decoration and covered outdoor spaces. A representative example of fine Tuscan terracotta work from the mid-20th century
