Description

Glazed terracotta plaque created by Anne Dangar (1885-1951) within the Moly-Sabata artistic community, founded by Albert Gleizes in Sablons in 1927. The piece presents an engraved crucifixion scene, organized into four registers: in the center, Christ on the cross, framed by stylized animal figures and characters with naïve lines. Two raised holy water fonts occupy the lower part, each decorated with an incised cross. True to her aesthetic blending spirituality, geometry, and popular influences, Anne Dangar explores here an accessible and archaic form of the sacred, nourished by the teachings of Cubism and the rediscovery of vernacular arts. The MSD signature, found on some of Moly-Sabata's works, is well documented in her corpus. This piece was previously restored; however, it is
