

Louis XV Style Lady's Desk

17 500 EUR

Signature : attribué la Maison Millet Paris

Period : 19th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Sublime and rare bonheur-du-jour in veneer and precious wood. Louis XV style; a high quality work attributed to the "Maison Millet" in Paris. The "Maison Millet" was founded in Paris in 1853. A highly talented specialist in the reproduction of 18th century furniture, Millet produced very high quality furniture and art bronzes. He received the highest awards, such as the Gold Medal at the Universal Exhibition in Paris in 1889 or the Grand Prix at the Universal Exhibition of 1900. The Maison Millet survived until 1918.

Dealer

Serge Daelmans Antiques Fine Art
Antique dealer

Tel : +32-475/250735

Rijksweg 255

Dilsen-Stokkem 3650