Description

It is interesting to compare with a related plaque in The Art Institute Museum in Chicago CLICK HEREIn Tibetan Buddhism the Vajrasattva root tantra is Dorje Gyan, or "Vajra Ornament".

Vajrasattva practices are common to all of the five schools of Tibetan Buddhism and are used both to purify obscurations so that the Vajrayana student can progress beyond Ngondro practices to the various yoga practices of tantra and also to purify any broken samaya vows after initiation.

As such, Vajrasattva practice is an essential element of Tibetan Buddhist practice.Period -
