Description

Pair of "Kabuto" armchairs, model OM 5006 designed by Isamu Kenmochi and produced by Tendo Mokko from 1961, Japan. This model rests on a fixed base and is distinguished by a generously padded seat covered in a burgundy fabric. The curved backrest follows the lines of the body, providing ergonomic comfort without compromising the purity of the design. Created in collaboration with the manufacturer Tendo Mokko, this armchair embodies Isamu Kenmochi's approach: reconciling functional requirements, comfort of use, and formal elegance. The Kabuto model is today considered one of the classics of Japanese design of the 1960s. Edition: Tendo Mokko, Japan, circa 1965.
