Description

Vintage wall mirror by Jan Deknudt - Golden elegance & octagonal design Bring a touch of graphic elegance and vintage refinement to your interior with this sumptuous octagonal wall mirror, designed by the Belgian house Jan Deknudt, a European reference in decorative mirrors since 1946. This model embodies the successful marriage between the discreet luxury of the 70s and 80s and a timeless geometric line. With its harmonious dimensions of 66 x 78 cm, this mirror stands out as a decorative element in its own right, without ever overwhelming the space. Its delicately patinated gilded brass frame frames a set of finely ribbed beveled glass glazing beads, which subtly capture and diffuse the light. The glasswork and the quality of the finishes demonstrate the craftsmanship inherent in the finest Belgian decorative pieces of this period.

Ideal in an entrance hall to create a point of light, in a living room above a sideboard, or in a bedroom with a classic or eclectic feel, this mirror blends naturally into many styles: Hollywood Regency, vintage, art deco or contemporary chic.
The whole is in very good condition, with a remarkable visual presence. A small, almost invisible crack is present on one of the glass elements; it does not alter the overall aesthetics or the integrity of the mirror. On the back, two hooks allow it to be displayed both horizontally and vertically.???? Additional information: This mirror is numbered 2043.111, and has the original label on the back with the words "registered trademark and model", attesting to its authenticity and its period Belgian manufacture.????
