Description

Superb NDOMA dance mask from the BAOULE of Ivory Coast hardwood with superb patina of use measuring 34cm high (plus quality base supplied with) for a maximum width of 16cm. This type of mask called NDOMA has an obvious patina of use. We can see on the forehead that a substance was poured during rituals; the tribal scarifications are almost erased by the numerous manipulations; shiny and crusty patina in places, traces of fixing links are still visible. Beautiful collector's item, free shipping worldwide.
