

Snuffbox, Box, Pressed Wood Representing The Battle Of Paris Of March 30, 1814

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Diameter : 8.2 cm

Description

Battle of March 30, 1814. On the heights of Saint-Chaumont, an artillery post, served by students of the École Polytechnique, fought a fierce battle and was saved from death by General Sokolnicki. The Battle of Paris took place on March 30, 1814. The last battle of the French campaign, it pitted the French Imperial Army (40,000 men) against the European Allied forces (100,000 men). The French defeat marked the end of the reign of Napoleon I, who abdicated after the capitulation. This box has a beautiful patina and color. Diameter: 8.2 cm

Dealer

Art Classique

curiosités, art premier et Asiatique

Tel : email : aze@pandora.be

Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740