An English painter born in London, Chinnery spent almost all his career in the Eastern world. After leaving London in 1802 he worked in India until 1825 and then for the rest of his life in Macao, from which he made visits to Canton and Hong Kong. He made his living principally as a portraitist, but his reputation now rests mainly on the pictures of Indian and Oriental life and scenery that he made for his own pleasure. Chinnery showed an early talent as a portrait painter in the traditions of Romney and Cosway. He entered the Royal Academy schools in 1792, and by 1795 had exhibited twenty portraits at the Academy. In 1796 he moved to Dublin and became Secretary of the Society of Artists in Ireland. In 1802 he returned to England and, later that year, left behind a wife and two children to travel to Madras as a painter for the East India Company. In 1808, Chinnery moved to Dacca in Bangladesh and, by 1812, was in Calcutta, where he became the principal portrait painter. However, he also ran up a debt of c.30,000 rupees. By 1825 he had fled to Macau on the coast of China. In Macau he painted portraits (particularly of expatriate merchants) and made topographical drawings. He died in the city, aged 74.

Condition report. The painting has been cleaned and there is some retouching in the background. There is craquelure throughout but the paint surface is stable and even. There has been some infill and associated retouching but well blended to the extreme lower right-hand margin. The painting was relined approximately 50 - 80 years ago and the canvas is in good tension. The frame is in excellent refurbished condition and is offered as a gift. See notes below regarding frames. Please note. The frame that is included in the pictures above has been added to the artwork by a third party/the seller, as such it is not an integral part of the object. The frame is therefore a gift and is therefore being provided to you at no additional cost so that when your artwork arrives at your house you can display it on your wall. We do not send fixings unless they are already fitted to the frames. Any damage to the frame during transit does not give the buyer a basis for a claim or validate a request for the cancellation of a sale. We would also point out that whilst we insure all paintings before shipping, we have no control over shipping once we have sent the painting and in most cases the frames are not covered in the insurance we take out for shipping which will only cover the painting. The successful bidder will be responsible for paying any import duties and any associated taxes in the country of destination. Please refer to the auction terms regarding customs fees and duties before bidding. All of the art that we sell is insured for shipping (subject to the above). All work will be professionally packed for shipping. We have been getting most paintings shipped to most parts of the EU within 7 working days, but we cannot guarantee time scales once it has left our storage facility as these are totally out of our control and depend on various factors including the buyers speed in responding to custom requests etc. Note: Studio/Gallery photos of paintings on an easel on the published material are intended only to accurately represent the size of the painting within that room environment. Also, please refer to the shipping costs and note the auctioneer's disclaimer regarding customs charges. We cannot calculate these as they are levied in the country of destination and the amount payable is determined by customs at the destination and not by ourselves or the auctioneers. We have experienced some customs charges (import taxes) that are higher than expected so we would advise bidders to attempt to establish the customs fees that you will before bidding. We must emphasise that it is NOT the UK customs that will be charging you but the customs authorities of the destination of the item. Shipping: 1) Free shipping is offered to the country of origin of the painting (subject to conditions). Please enquire with us prior to purchase. 2) All other EU shipping £903) All other Worldwide shipping is £1504) Shipping to the UK, NI and Ireland is £50 We offer a 14 day returns policy with strict conditions that the painting is returned in the same condition it was when received and packed to the same standard of packaging and fully insured to the price paid to Westcoast Fine Art Ltd for the artwork. Note: The buyer will be liable to pay the customs fees payable in the country of destination. We always advise the purchaser to enquire with local customs authorities to establish customs tariffs prior to committing to purchase.
