Description

Louis XVI Period Lacquered Wood Living Room Furniture, Circa 1780 Sublime set of six Louis XVI period lacquered wood chairs, resting on saber back legs and tapered front legs with balusters. These molded and carved chairs with slightly curved straight backs are upholstered in pink velvet, finished with upholstery nails. Their belts are animated, connecting dice with rosette decoration. Good seating. Good stability. Furniture of beautiful manufacturing quality, with simple and elegant lines. These seats combine practical utility with their seating comfort thanks to their curved backs and firm seats but also make a very pretty visual with their delicate and harmonious curves, they will easily adapt to your interior. These chairs bear witness to the elegance of French furniture from the Louis
