Description

Learning to emblazon, knowing enamels, their symbolism, how to decipher them in black and white, all this knowledge was essential in a world where nobility was still a topic of conversation, as in society. Small booklets like this one allowed one to become familiar with this age-old art. Published by Dentu, bookseller of the society of literary people, at the Palais Royal. The paper, as often in the 19th century, is pitted, the red half binding is in very good condition. 195 pages
