Description

Elegant glass-fronted cabinet in solid walnut dating from the early 20th century, in the pure Louis XVI style. It is distinguished by its rounded pediment decorated with carved motifs decorated with ribbons, crowns and crossed quivers, typical emblems of the neoclassical aesthetic. The uprights are finely carved with foliate falls, and the tapered and fluted legs recall the decorative codes of the 18th century. The two glass doors reveal three wooden shelves, ideal for displaying a collection or refined tableware. Beveled glass. Beautiful quality work, with careful finishing and the warm patina of the walnut. Dimensions: (H)226 cm x (W) 146 cm x (D) 49 cm Condition: Very good general condition (rare holes for woodworms, this piece of furniture has just been treated)
