Description

Superb and elegant pair of teak bergère chairs from the 50s. Model PK 988-1023 PARKER KNOLL. It rests on 4 legs, the rear ones of which are slightly inclined and connected at the front by a scalloped crosspiece. The armrests are wide and comfortable and the top of the backrest has wings. The cushioned seat mounted on original elastic straps provides great comfort. The seat is wide and the whole has been completely redone with a "sheep's wool" fabric. Quality work in excellent condition, comfortable and solid.
