Description

This serene impressionist seascape, signed by an as-yet unidentified artist, captures the quiet majesty of sea and sky in harmonious balance. Painted with loose, expressive brushwork and a restrained palette of silvery blues, misty greys, and soft aquas, the composition radiates calm and subtle movement. Two sailboats drift across the distant horizon, their gentle presence anchoring the expansive view. The artist's intuitive handling of light, atmosphere, and texture suggests both technical skill and emotional insight--hallmarks of early 20th-century European impressionism. Though undiscovered, the artist demonstrates a compelling sensitivity to nature's rhythms, offering a piece that feels both timeless and deeply personal. Framed in a beautifully carved
