Description

This charming side cabinet in solid oak captures the rustic elegance of the French country style from the late 19th century. Discovered in a traditional home nestled in the rolling hills of the Loire Valley, it stands out for its authenticity and fine craftsmanship.The cabinet features two drawers with carved foliate motifs and original brass handles. Two turned columns frame the lower open shelf, perfect for displaying or storing tableware, books, or decorative objects. Both the top and the back are made of solid wood, ensuring durability and quality.The traditional construction showcases classic woodworking techniques: dovetail joints for the drawers and mortise-and-tenon assembly. The rich, warm patina of the oak, developed over decades, adds timeless character.Today, this versatile piece fits
