

Masonic Plate - La Charité Lodge - Belgium 19th Century

125 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Diameter : 20 cm

Description

Rare white earthenware Masonic plate with black decoration, made for the "La Charité" lodge, identifiable by the central inscription and the richly detailed emblematic symbolism. This piece most likely dates from the mid to late 19th century. Description: In the center is a set of Masonic symbols: Six-pointed stars arranged in an arc, Level, set square, mallet, acacia branch, And in the center, the words: "R.L. La Charité, O. de Charleroi" (meaning "Respectable Lodge La Charité, Orient de Charleroi"). The peripheral inscription "LA CHARITÉ" reinforces the initiatory origin of the object. Mark on the reverse Plate from the Manufacture Impériale et Royale, a Belgian factory active in the 19th century, known for its production of fine earthenware with printed decoration, here marked for export or

Dealer

Le sanctuaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

lodges. Characteristics: Period: circa 1860-1890

Origin: Belgium Diameter: 20 cm Technique:

fine printed earthenware, black net border

Condition: Very good general condition, some slight surface wear, no chips or cracks. Very beautiful Masonic collector's item, rare testimony of ritual or table objects used. Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the objects offered for sale.