Description
-------------

French Art Deco club chair Glossy black lacquer and gray bouclé fabric, 1930s Art Deco cubist club chair with curved armrests on a straight base. The wooden frame has been completely lacquered in black. The upholstery has been renewed, the cover fabric is a light gray shield with round nails by Dominique Kieffer. The chair is bold and sporty-elegant. The base, closed at the front, is open at the back and ends in a glider. The rounded armrests are slightly exaggerated and connect to the curved backrest. The chair has an almost floating and futuristic character, it looks bold and sporty-elegant. The seating comfort is very good and pleasant.
