Description

We present this important porcelain group (biscuit) representing the Triumph of Bacchus after Hugues de TARAVAL and Louis Simon BOIZOT. This group would be part of a centerpiece and it is exactly the same as one in the collections of the Palace of Versailles, it would have been made in SEVRES and would be from the 18th century. I found all these references on the internet. Six characters and a panther are represented in this group. Shipping only by carrier.
