Description

View of the Grand Canal in Venice - Oil on wood signed J. Smith - 20th century
Charming oil on wood depicting a lively view of the Grand Canal in Venice, bustling with gondolas and lined with superb Venetian facades bathed in the golden light of the lagoon. On the right, the church of San Stae stands out elegantly in a peaceful and luminous atmosphere. The finesse of the line, the precise work of the reflections on the water and the warm palette recall the traditions of the Italian vedutists. The work is signed J. Smith lower right. He was a painter active in the 20th century, author of numerous decorative views inspired by the great masters of Venice. His painting, applied and detailed, is in the tradition of Venetian scenes prized by lovers of decorative art. Very beautiful antique frame in carved and gilded wood, richly
