Description

Platinum earrings made up of an Art Deco motif, suspended from baguettes and a motif also very Art Deco mounted as a "puce" on a rod system for pierced ears. Fine and slender, these earrings offer the delicacy of the work and lines of Art Deco jewelry and great mobility, since the different elements are articulated, for a beautiful fall and a beautiful movement when worn, which allows the diamonds to capture the light with all lightness. The delicately openworked Art Deco motif is adorned on its final tassel, also mobile, with calibrated fine rubies. These contemporary earrings offer the advantage of respecting Art Deco aesthetics and codes while using contemporary stones: the diamonds are therefore brilliant-cut diamonds, considered the most accomplished and luminous, and the rubies are,
