Description

Superb exotic wood console designed in Vietnam for the Paris World Fair in 1889. Very original in its shape, it has a parallelepiped-shaped top inlaid with bone decoration representing a lake scene with palace architecture and animated by characters and boats sailing on the waters. The top is mounted with miter cuts and rests on a superb base inlaid with light bone motifs: fish, bats, etc. The 4 feet surround a second top at the base completely carved and openwork with a dragon. The whole is in perfect condition with remarkable quality of carving and inlays.

Excellent condition, no lack or restoration. Very stable, solid and very original, a console from Vietnam that is truly out of the ordinary.
