Description

Enchanting and nostalgic, this original mid-century oil painting beautifully captures the charm of Berne's iconic Clock Tower (Zytglogge). Rendered in expressive brushstrokes and rich, harmonious colors, the artwork effortlessly evokes the tranquility and elegance of historic European architecture. Soft hues of green, earthy browns, and cool blues gracefully depict the surrounding streets, leading the eye gently towards the timeless focal point--the tower itself, crowned with its distinctive spire. Created by noted mid-20th-century artist B. Nikritin, this cityscape merges elements of Post-Impressionism and Modernism, striking a balance between representational charm and abstract flair. The warm, inviting tones and refined aesthetic make this painting an exceptional addition to
