Description

DescriptionThis dynamic work by Jaume Genovart exemplifies the spirit of New Abstraction, blending gestural freedom with a refined calligraphic sensibility. Executed in oil on canvas, La puerta en radiates chromatic intensity--fields of cobalt blue, primary yellow, and crimson red are interwoven with translucent washes and rhythmic strokes of violet, emerald, and burnt orange. The interplay of line and color evokes a sense of musical balance, where movement and restraint coexist in expressive harmony. Genovart's composition embraces the essential elements of painting--color, gesture, and surface--while reflecting Spain's Pintura-pintura ethos, which championed painting as a pure visual language. With its luminous tension and lyrical abstraction, this piece stands as a
