Description

Mirror called Venice surmounted by a pediment. The surround of the central mirror is executed with glazing beads, with mirror plates arranged at an angle. The central mirror has acquired a beautiful patina, the few black spots accentuate the charm of the old. The back is parquetered. This is a model which can be either hung on the wall or placed on its base. Good general condition, note a small lack on a fastener (close-up photo) Delivery at the buyer's expense.
