Description

This character is made of plush and felt and dressed in his original felt costume. He has porcelain "googly" eyes with a bland background, brown iris and black pupil. He is in very good condition except a minor scratch on the top of its right foot. O'LIS has made many stuffed animals, as well as characters from advertising, cartoons and comics, such as the Disney characters it has licensed. It started to be distributed in 1940's. Dimensions: 11" high. Feel free to ask any questions or for more pictures!
