Description

Elegant 18-carat yellow gold necklace, a typical Belle Époque jewel, composed of a succession of finely chiseled elements in garlands of foliage and rosettes, punctuated with small flowers, fine pearls and garlands of falling flowers. In the center, a faceted oval blue stone (sapphire) set in a beaded surround, underlines the elegance of the composition. Double security closure. The play of beaded chains, the openwork volumes and the floral details evoke the romantic spirit of French jewelry around 1900. The necklace is distinguished by the balance of its shapes, the finesse of its engraving and the harmony of its materials. Hallmark: eagle's head.
