Description

Empire style 4-light chandelier. The frame is in bronze with a double green and gilded patina, decorated with a crystal bowl at the bottom and garlands of crystal tassels at the top. Decorated with eagles, palmettes, and acorns. Note a slight impact on the upper part of the crystal bowl, which does not weaken it and is barely visible as a whole (see photo). French work from the late 19th and early 20th centuries. All our light fixtures are fully restored by our workshop, both structurally and electrically, and are therefore in perfect working order. Bulbs to use : small bayonet caps, type B22. Dimensions - Weight : 7.950 kilograms. Diameter : 44 centimeters. Ceiling light diameter : 16 centimeters. Total height : 48 centimeters.
