Description

We are offering this five-leaf screen in its original condition. It comes from the attic of a castle. One of the leaves is detached from the rest of the screen. It needs to be repaired, but it is not in a terrible condition. We are selling it in its original condition. We believe it dates from the late 18th century or the very beginning of the 19th century. It can be delivered by courier. (E25)
