Description

This beautiful coffee table dating from around 1820 impresses with its clear, early Biedermeier design. Originally used as a sewing table, this delicate piece of furniture now impresses with its understated elegance and versatile uses--whether as a side table, a stand-alone piece in the hallway, or as a stylish workstation in the home office. Crafted from fine walnut and featuring a fine, silky surface, the wood presents itself in its most beautiful form: natural, warm, and with a vibrant grain. The gently tapered legs give the table a simple lightness. A drawer provides discreet storage space, true to its original function as a sewing table. The table has been professionally restored and is in excellent condition--ready to be moved and bring history into new spaces. Product Details: Original Biedermeier, circa 1820 Fine
