Description

1950s Fabric Fragment - Grisaille Scene with a Unique Design Charming printed fabric fragment from around 1950, depicting a lively scene populated by strange characters, animals, and fantastical trees. The pattern, treated in grisaille on a light background, evokes the world of fable or dreams, with a touch of delicious strangeness.

A rare textile, both decorative and narrative, ideal for a collector, to be framed, made into a cushion, or included in a textile archive collection.
