Description

We present this fantastic oil painting on plywood dating back to the early decades of the 20th century. The painting bears the signature A. Scocchera at the bottom left (see photo). Attributable to the Italian painter Alfredo Scocchera (Baselice, 1887 - Milan, 25 January 1955), painted without authentication. This exquisite painting captures a serene Italian mountain valley, showcasing the artist's deep sensitivity to nature's beauty and everyday life. In the foreground, on the right, a woman is engaged in washing clothes at a traditional washhouse, embodying the simplicity and dignity of rural life. To the left, a quaint stone mountain hut stands amidst the lush greenery, with chickens pecking nearby and cows grazing peacefully in the vibrant meadow. The background is crowned by majestic
