2 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Oil painting

Description

This work is a neoclassical style painting and represents a historical/mythological scene set in ancient Rome. The scene is full of characters and architectural details with a theatrical composition typical of historical depictions. At the center of the composition a man in Roman clothes holds out his hand to a young woman dressed in white and blue. This male character could represent Julius Caesar, a Roman emperor or a general, while the woman could be Cleopatra or another noble figure. The colors are warm tones, dominated by reds, golds and whites, with dramatic use of light. General Condition: Good condition. Origin: Naples late 18th century. Measurements: 55x65cm. Document: Certificate of Authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarifications or
