

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Boch Frères Keramis Charles Catteau Art Deco Vase

150 EUR

Signature : Boch Frères Keramis Charles catteau

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 24cm

Description

Boch Frères Kéramis Art Deco vase, pot-bellied shape with a narrowed neck, polychrome decoration of stylized flowers, 1923. Very good condition Height 24cm Signed underneath BFK Olga Décor 788 and stamp Boch Frères La Louvière Model referenced in the catalog of Charles Catteau ceramics, by Marc Pairon, page 651. BOCH Frères Kéramis Created in 1841, in La Louvière in Belgium, by Eugène and Victor, the Kéramis factory is a large classic earthenware factory, whose flagship is the creation of Delft decorations. The arrival in 1906 of the designer Charles Catteau gave it a new lease of life. Present at the 1925 International Exhibition of Decorative Arts and the Paris Salon d'Automne, she worked for the art workshops of department stores - Primavera, Pomone and La Maitrise -

Dealer

Cornershop Design

20th Century Design

Tel : 0622750609

Mobile : +33 (0) 622750609

Paris 75004

influenced by Japonism, Africanism and avant-gardism.