Description

Antique oil painting on canvas with gilded wooden frame depicting Psyche saying goodbye to her family. The painting depicts a sad scene set in a suggestive mountain landscape. In the center, two women, probably Psyche and her sister, embrace in a moving farewell. Psyche, wrapped in a flowing white dress, appears distraught as she prepares to leave. Her sister, adorned with a golden dress, mirrors her grief. On the left, a figure wrapped in a rich red dress, probably Psyche's father, stands with her head bowed in grief. Behind the sisters, another female figure, perhaps another sister, raises her hand in a gesture of despair. In the background, a partially obscured figure can be seen, probably busy preparing a chariot, which alludes to the journey that Psyche is about to undertake. The general atmosphere of
