Description

Bronze Buddha Amitayus depicted seated in dhyana mudra on a double lotus. Tibet, late 19th-early 20th century. Beautiful patina, beautiful bronze quality. He holds in his hands a Kalasha, a vase symbolizing abundance and the source of life. Dhyana mudra is the posture of tranquility, concentration, and meditation. With his eyes closed, the seated Buddha places his right hand on his left. This posture is commonly used by monks and meditation practitioners. Free shipping for mainland France.
