

Shipowner, Pair Of Portraits Of A Shipowner And His Wife, 18th Century School

3 850 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 82

Height : 99

Description

Pair of portraits representing a shipowner and his wife, French school of the 18th century, these portraits come from an old malouinière in the region of Saint Malo, we can deduce that it is a shipowner from Saint Malo, Representing for him Monsieur du Bot, father of Madame de Coatgoueden and Madame du Botnée Barnis de Froment, he is presented in full dress wearing the order of Saint Louis, in front of a ship at sea, she in a quality interior wearing a muff and richly dressed The canvases measure 78 by 83 work of the 18th century, these "beautiful" portraits are presented in good condition, in wooden frames and gilded stucco in good condition

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000